Membership information

Thanks for your interest - we hope you will find the garden a wonderful place to connect with other people. We hope it helps you to connect with nature, share and grow food grown using organic principles, and develop the skills and knowledge for sustainable living.

How to apply

1. Tour the Warrnambool Community Garden

Take a tour of the garden with the convenor, site manager or a committee member to get a sense of the place and how you can get involved as a member. If you're considering hiring a private plot, you may be able to look at some options.

2. Complete the application form

Read our rules, policies and guidelines and our statement of purpose available on wcg3280.org.au. Our association rules constitute the terms of contract for all memberships and by signing and dating the membership form you agree to abide by them.

Make sure you give us a few words about why you are joining. If you're a family or an organisation, include a second adult contact. Do not pay membership fees upfront.

3. Approval and induction

The committee meets monthly to approve membership applications. Once approved, we'll contact you with options to pay your membership fees. Your details go on our member register and the member support team will organise your induction.

4. Pay membership fees

Members pay an annual fee according to their membership type. They also contribute to our garden according to their skills, interests and abilities.
